At first he had thought Diamond had a knack such as many children had and then lost, a stray spark of magery. When he was a little boy, Golden himself had been able to make his own shadow shine and sparkle. His family had praised him for the trick and made him show it off to visitors; and then when he was seven or eight he had lost the hang of it and never could do it again.. Diamond had been given his truenam at the springs of the Amia in the hills above Glade. The. "It'll stop by midday," the wizard told the chickens. He fed them and squelched back to the house. Later he knew he should never have let the boy leave the house. He had underestimated Diamond's willpower, or the strength of the spell the girl had laid on him. Their conversation was in the morning; Hemlock went back to the ancient cantrip he was annotating; it was not till supper time that he thought about his pupil, and not until he had eaten supper alone that he admitted that Diamond had run away.. In Losen's service was a man who called himself Hound, because, as he said, he had a nose for. "If I lie down I won't get up. I want to see the Mountain.".. "Nais. How old are you?". "Well, he can't lift the murrain all at once. But seems like he can cure a beast if he gets to it before the staggers begin. And those not struck yet, he says he can keep it off em.
